

PRIVACY NOTICE

Privacy Notice for the Alexion External Funding Management System (the “Site”)

At Alexion Pharmaceuticals Inc. (“Alexion”), we are committed to handling personal data, including the personal data of our employees, fairly and transparently in support of our mission and in accordance with the laws and regulations that govern data protection and privacy.

Through the Site, external parties are able to submit requests for Alexion Charitable Foundation contributions to Alexion. Alexion users, worldwide, are able to view, review, and approve/deny the requests.

Alexion Pharmaceuticals, Inc., 121 Seaport Boulevard, Boston, Massachusetts 02210, USA, and the Alexion affiliate in the country in which you are located, and our affiliates (“Alexion”, “we”, “us”) as data controllers are providing this statement of our privacy and data protection practices to inform you of the reasons that we collect data about you and how we will respect your rights. This is a statement of our privacy practices relating to how Alexion may collect, store, process and use certain information about you related to the application for Alexion Charitable Foundation; this is not a contract.

How We Collect Personal Data and Why We Use It

We collect personal data (“Personal Data”) about you both through interactions we have with you, as well as from third party professional sources. We use that Personal Data in the following ways:

Personal Data You Provide: We collect your Personal Data, such as name, address, email, country, phone number, and any other information you share voluntarily via email or via the request application on the Site. This Personal Data is processed to set up a profile within our system, to assess your request for funding and to provide information to you about the status of your request.

By providing your Personal Data to us, you give your consent to Alexion to collect, store, review and otherwise process your Personal Data for the purposes of assessing your request and answering your question. Where you provide us with additional information that does not identify you as an individual, such as documents, data, graphics, questions, suggestions, concepts, remarks or other, the information will not be considered confidential. By transmitting this non-personal data to us, you grant us the right to use, reproduce, diffuse or modify the data, or to transmit it in for purposes of processing your request, provided we do so in a manner that has removed any personal information from it.

Our Site is not intended to collect your sensitive Personal Data. Where we inadvertently collect Personal Data of a sensitive nature about you because you accidentally or voluntarily provide your health or medical information, we will only process it to the extent necessary to identify it as Sensitive Personal Data. If you provide your Sensitive Personal Data, we will contact you to obtain your explicit consent to further process your data. In some cases, we may have other obligations to process this data outside of your explicit consent. In such case, we will process this data in accordance with our obligations to ensure the quality and safety of our products (Article 9(2)(i) GDPR). To the extent we have such obligations, we will only process your data as necessary to comply with these requirements.

To the extent you complete and submit an Charitable Foundation Application, you will be sharing your name, contact information and relevant financial information. This Application will be used by Alexion Charitable Foundation to determine eligibility for funding. Alexion will process your Personal Information in relation to the Alexion Charitable Foundation Application in accordance with our performance of the contract.

Data combined from more than one source: We may combine and use anonymized/de-identified data to help improve the content, functionality, and usability of the Site. This use of your data would be done so in accordance with Alexion’s Legitimate Interests to support, maintain and improve upon our Site.

We may combine the data collected from you and share it with other Alexion companies and trusted third parties in order to provide you with the Services better. This processing will only occur upon your explicit consent and you are free to revoke your consent at any time.

Data about our Business Partner's employees: Where we have a business relationship with a supplier or customer, we may have some personal data relating to their employees. This is usually limited to contact information. We will use this Personal Data for the purpose for which it was given to us or to facilitate our management of the business relationship. Where this use is based on consent (for example for marketing), your consent may be withdrawn at any time by contacting us via the details below.

Data automatically collected via and during the use of the Site in the interest of applying for a grant or charitable contribution: We may automatically collect certain types of Personal Data whenever you interact with us on the Site. Examples of such Personal Data include your IP address, geographical location, browser type, device type, operating system, etc. We may use this Personal Data to improve the quality of the Site and it is only used in an aggregated form. This depersonalized, aggregated information collected from our Site help us to understand trends and your needs. For example, we may analyze location of visitors and the pages visited on the Site and time spent related to a particular medication or disease state, and we may use that analysis of aggregate data internally or share it with others for the purposes set forth in this Privacy Notice. Alexion gathers this usage data and site information in order to maintain our Site and provide you services, which we do so under Alexion's legitimate interests in order to support, maintain and improve upon our Site. Additionally, by continuing to use our website, you consent to the processing of this Personal Data. For further information please see our Cookie and Site Usage Tracking Notice.

If you have any questions regarding the legal basis for our usage or collection of your Personal Data, please feel free to contact Alexion as provided below.

Other Processing

Due to the nature of its business, Alexion is subject to a range of regulation and legislation, mainly related to patient safety. As a result, Alexion may be required to process Personal Data in order to meet its legal obligations. Where this is necessary, we will do so in a way which protects your privacy to the extent possible while still complying with obligations.

Personal Data Sharing and Recipients

Alexion will not disclose to third parties your Personal Data without adequate organizational and technical measures in place in order to protect your Personal Data. Third parties Alexion might work with are:

1. Vendors and service providers who assist Alexion with the processing of information collected during the grant or charitable application process, including hosting the Site platform.
2. Third parties in connection with the sale, assignment or other transfer of an Alexion business;
3. Third parties to respond to requests of government or law enforcement agencies or where required or permitted by applicable laws, court orders, or government regulations; or When needed for corporate audits or to investigate or respond to a complaint or security threat.
4. Any affiliated entity, vendor or service provider, or other third party who has permitted access to or to whom we transfer Personal Data is required to keep it confidential and secure, as well as to process it only for the purposes we have informed you of in this privacy statement or for which you have consented.

Protecting Your Personal Data

Alexion takes seriously our responsibility to protect the Personal Data entrusted to us. As such, we use appropriate privacy and security controls and processes that are designed to help protect and safeguard your Data.

International Personal Data Transfer

Alexion is an international organization with affiliates and subsidiaries worldwide. Some of these have their registered offices or are located in countries not providing for the same level of data protection as the country where you reside (including in other countries that do not provide for the same level of regulatory data protection). In order to protect your privacy, where data are transferred by or on behalf of Alexion to other countries or organizations that have not been recognized as providing regulatory protection similar to your country, Alexion contractually obliges its international entities, affiliates and service providers to comply with the applicable data protection laws and principles through standard clauses that have been approved or recognized by the relevant regulators.

Website Hosting

The Site may be directed to a third-party site administered, which is hosted by a third-party vendor. The site will be hosted in the United States by the third-party vendor, CyberGrants.

Your Rights

You may contact us to request access to your Personal Data or to receive your data in a portable form (to the extent the right to data portability is provided under your applicable law) by contacting us as provided below. To the extent provided for under applicable law, you may also inquire about correcting inaccurate information, accessing a list of providers and their data processing locations currently used by Alexion, or to raise other concerns about how we are handling Personal Data, to opt out of or suppress certain data processing or to request deletion, restrictions or withdrawal of your explicit consent. We will honor your request in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations and in a manner consistent with Alexion's privacy commitment. In accordance with applicable law, as a result of withdrawal of your consent, your Personal Data will be deleted from Alexion records, and Alexion will ensure that this Personal Data is deleted from its associated service providers, unless the Personal Data cannot be deleted where we are required to retain it by applicable laws and regulations.

Alexion Cookie and Site Usage Notice

We automatically collect certain types of information whenever you interact with us on the Alexion Sites and in some e-mails we may send each other. Automatic technologies we use may include, for example, web server logs and IP addresses, cookies and web beacons.

Web Server Logs and IP Addresses: An IP address is a number assigned to your computer whenever you access the Internet that allows computers and servers to recognize and communicate with each other. Alexion collects IP addresses to conduct system administration and report aggregate information to affiliates, business partners, service providers and/or vendors to conduct website and Application analysis and performance reviews.

Cookies: A cookie is a piece of information that is placed on your computer when you access certain websites and Applications. The cookie uniquely identifies your browser to the server. Cookies allow us to store information on the server to help make your web experience better and to conduct website and Application analysis and performance reviews. Most web browsers are set up to accept cookies, although you can reset your browser to refuse all cookies or to indicate when a cookie is being sent. Note, however, that some portions of our Sites may not work properly if you refuse cookies. The Site hosting our proxy statement and annual report does not use cookies.

Web Beacons: On certain web pages or e-mails, Alexion may utilize a common Internet technology called a “web beacon” (also known as an “action tag” or “clear GIF technology”). Web beacons help analyze the effectiveness of websites by measuring, for example, the number of visitors to a site or how many visitors clicked on key elements of a site.

Web beacons, cookies and other tracking technologies do not automatically obtain personal information about you. Only if you voluntarily submit personal information, such as by registering or sending e-mails, can these automatic tracking technologies be used to provide further information about your use of the websites to improve their usefulness to you.

Limitation on Scope of Principles

Adherence by the Company to these privacy principles may be limited to the extent necessary to meet the Company’s regulatory, legal, governmental, or national security obligations.
