

Spire Giving

Focus areas	Key Performance Indicators
Civic & Community Development	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recipients of funded services maintain or improve quality of life • Recipients of funded services experience a sense of belonging • Recipients of funded services feel more hopeful about the future • Recipients of funded services feel connected to their community
Education	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recipients of funded services educated about benefits of clean energy, natural gas and natural gas safety • Recipients of funded services gain knowledge about the benefits of clean energy, natural gas and natural gas safety • Recipients of funded services make changes based on knowledge gained • Recipients of funded services obtain job-readiness skills • Recipients of funded services enroll in job training, college or vocational education • Recipients of funded services complete job training, college or vocational education
Environment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recipients of funded services adopt stewardship and preservation practices • Investment yields measurable results for greenhouse gas emissions reduction • Acres of land impacted • Miles of trails enhanced or restored • Miles of waterways restored or maintained. • Number of native trees, shrubs, and flowers planted
Health & Human Services	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recipients of funded services successfully linked with community services • Recipients of funded services have immediate basic needs met • Recipients of funded services develop strategies to enhance energy efficiency • Households where service termination prevented • Households where service restored • Low-income households received energy efficiency measures and services